2021 Members Show: A New Year's Hope

January 22 - January 30, 2021

Hope, Dan Taylor

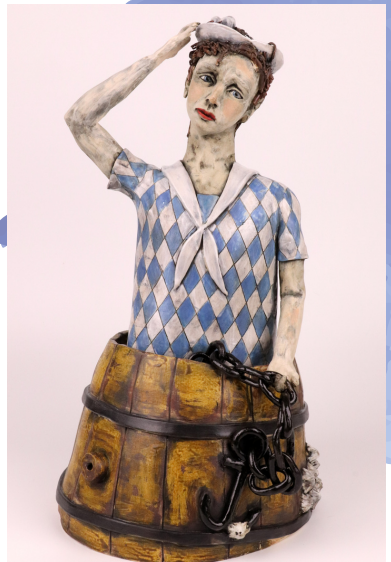

We are showing off what some of our members have discovered over the past year while staying distant and experiencing the turbulent year of 2020. A New Year's Hope is a special exhibit for our members to share their creations and help us kick off a brand new year of exciting exhibits and events at LeMoyne.

Axis Mundi, Michele "Page" Webster

Welcome, Beverly Harding

Upcoming Exhibit:

LeMoyne Arts Civil Rights Exhibit: Then and Now

February 11 - February 27

For Black History month, LeMoyne Arts would like to reflect on artwork inspired by the civil rights movement in the 1960s compared to contemporary artwork today. We will show Karl Zerbe's Civil Right collection from the 1960s (inspired by the jailing in Albany GA) along with contemporary artwork that reflects civil rights movement of our 'now'.
